The business for which the joint assembly convened having been accomplished, the Senate returns to its chamber, and takes a recess until 4 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Senate reconvenes at 4 o'clock, and is called to order by President Winston.

The President appoints Senators Pharr, Mills and Lee a committee to wait upon Lieutenant Governor William C. Newland and escort him to the chamber.

President Winston presents Lieutenant Governor Newland in the following words:

"The hour of noon has come, when I retire from office. For ten years I have been intimately associated with the legislation of this State. A decade ago I entered the other house. The Democratic Party came into power upon a wave of revolution, its acts have been constructive. It has freed the electorate of the ignorant, the debauched, the vicious, and made intelligence and character the qualification of the voter. In assuming that these come by inheritance as well as in the schools, we have but followed that older Commonwealth whose wise sons for a century before our time sought the same source of a voter's fitness. We have built a new school-house every day in the year during the last five years. The tick of the clock has not been more regular than the hammer of the school-house carpenter. Twice a week for five years some new community has stood up and said, 'Let us tax ourselves for the education of our children.' One-fifth of our educational fund is now raised by special taxes. Our little school districts have become the centers of local self-government and are illustrating the wisdom, the power and the beneficence of government by the people, of the people and for the people. In ten years we have quadrupled our school property and trebled our annual expenditure for education. This year begins the educational test for voting. Compulsory education is already a necessity, and the popular verdict will make it a law. Our army of school children will grow until, clasping hands, they may reach from seashore to mountains. These are the true guardians of the State. Let the State be true to them and they will ever be true to her—will give her peace, prosperity, virtue and happiness. The real hope of the world is in the constant improvement of each generation of children.

"No man will be a drunkard hereafter in North Carolina, except under public condemnation. No man hereafter in North Carolina will grow rich making drunkards. Within our borders liquor dealing now stands a curse. We may not save all from its damning power, but we will save as many as we can. We have made the liquor traffic unfashionable, unpopular and illegal. Of all forms of human misery and sorrow the worst has ever been the drunkard's home and the drunkard's sin visited upon innocent and helpless children until the third and fourth generation.

"In ten years we have changed from the poorest State in the Union to one of the most prosperous. We have made more progress in wealth and in education than any community of equal size on the globe. We have done it without the help of immigration, or of outside capital, or of great resources newly discovered, or of rapidly-built-up seaports and manufacturing cities. We are still a State of towns and farms. Our industries are native—native in workmen, material and management. Our growth has been steady, founded upon native character, energy and intelligence. The poverty of our lands turned our labor to manufacturing. Manufacturing, in turn, made local markets for farm products, and thus the Commonwealth grew in healthy, strong development.

"An ideal State, complete in itself, agricultural, commercial, manufacturing. There is nothing essential to human comfort that is not produced in North Carolina. The plate-glass factories of High Point are shipping full-length mirrors to the Sultan of Zulu and the Queen of Madagascar. The spindles of our mills are making yarn enough annually to enfold the earth in a network of cotton. The shuttles of our looms in one continuous line could outstrip the fastest express train and weave an endless roll of cloth from New York to San Francisco. Already Charlotte is the center of the cotton industries; some day it will be the cotton capital of the world. The call of the cotton-mill whistle, echoing from mill to mill, in the stillness of the morning, and the black smoke from mill chimneys in endless procession from Elizabeth City to Brevard, tell the story of our industrial life. Our network of industries will soon be complete. Every mill and factory in sight of a farm; every farm in reach of railroad and local markets.

"In one generation we have increased our property values five hundred per cent. Our poverty, long patiently endured, proved to be our riches. God forbid that our riches should ever prove our poverty.

"Senators, look at North Carolina to-day: A land of mountains, plains and seacoast, with climate a golden mean between the cold of the North and heat of the South; with every plant and soil that belongs to the temperate zone; with sunlight in the sky every day in the year, and sunshine in the heart every hour of the day; with cities and towns, farms and factories, mills and mines, forests and fisheries, linked together in a network of mutual power and dependence; with population homogeneous and happy—the purest Anglo-Saxon Commonwealth of the globe, over ninety-nine per cent. native born and to the manor born—a Commonwealth marked by the strong and elemental virtues that underlie civilization by courage and virtue, simplicity and honesty, justice and mercy, law and liberty, kindness and hospitality ever flowing with human power; a nursery of men for other states, in her old age rising from poverty to riches, made young again by the energies of her sons and the virtues of her daughters—her growth and education the marvel of the world. With another generation of education, of temperance, of industrial development she will stand at the very head of the mighty column of American Commonwealths. She is resting upon the wise legislation of the past ten years. It is a privilege to have participated somewhat in that legislation. I retire from active participation in these halls carrying hence the abiding faith that has come from years of experience, that a North Carolina Legislature can be depended upon to do what is best for North Carolina.

"I surrender my office to the chosen representative here of the whole people. His high character, his pure personality, the extensive acquaintance with our State and his experience in courts and these halls are guarantees that he will preside here with justice, fairness, looking to the glory of our great State.

"I introduce Lieutenant Governor Will C. Newland. In the words of Dickens' purest creation: 'God bless you, one and all'; God bless our State."

Lieutenant Governor Newland on taking the chair, addresses the Senate as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE:—In assuming the duties of this high and honorable office, to which a generous people have called me, I would be less than human if I did not take this occasion to express in some measure my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the citizenship of my State. To accept and occupy this distinguished and important position without evincing in a degree the natural pride and gratification I feel, would not be in accordance with my ideas of propriety.

"That our duties will be arduous no one will doubt, and it behooves each of us to approach the discharge of those duties with fearlessness and patriotism. Many questions of grave importance to the Commonwealth and its people will engage our attention during the session of the General Assembly, and none graver than those which I will now mention.

"The educational development of the State should be safeguarded with the utmost zeal and care. No backward step should be taken in furnishing ample means for the education of every boy and girl in North Carolina who have not the means to educate themselves; and I hope every Senator will feel it his duty to vote generous appropriations for this purpose.

"Second in importance is the industrial development of this Commonwealth. Abounding, as it does, in natural resources equal to any in the Union, it is of the utmost importance that no legislation be enacted that will hinder or retard the marvelous industrial growth of our State. With its minerals, its forests, its climate and its sturdy citizenship, North Carolina is destined to stand in the foremost rank of States in the Union.

"Next comes the old Confederate veteran; the name 'Confederate veteran' sounds sweet to every patriotic North Carolinian, and he speaks it with a reverence and tenderness akin to that with which he utters the word 'mother.' Those old heroes of the fire-swept field of many battles deserve all and more than North Carolina is able to do for them, and I trust that the statute passed for the pensioning of the old veterans will be amended in such manner as to repeal the words, 'worth less than five hundred dollars,' and let every old veteran, regardless of his worth, be entitled to a pension, and rest assured that those who do not need the pittance are too patriotic to accept it, but will gladly see it divided amongst his more unfortunate comrades.

"There are many things about which something might be said; but I feel sure that every Senator left his home with the full intention of rendering his State the best service of which he is capable.

"To you, Governor Winston, I desire to express my sincerest thanks for the kind and generous praise you have seen fit to bestow upon me, and say further, that if it be said of me that I made as good a presiding officer as Lieutenant Governor Winston I shall feel satisfied and feel that I am entitled to the plaudit, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'

"And to you, Senators, I bespeak for myself the same kind, courteous and patient consideration you have accorded to my distinguished predecessor, and I ask every Senator in this chamber, regardless of party affiliations, to co-operate with me and aid me in the discharge of my duties as presiding officer, assuring you that in the performance of which I shall be fearless, patriotic and impartial.

"And now, wishing you each and every one a pleasant sojourn in our capital city, I declare this Senate ready for business."

On motion of Senator Blow, the following resolution is unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

"Whereas, the Hon. Francis D. Winston, as Lieutenant Governor and presiding officer of the Senate has during his continuance in office discharged the duties incumbent upon him with great distinction, impartiality and kindness; therefore, Be it

Resolved, That this Senate, in recognition of his sterling worth, patriotism, impartiality and able manner in which the Hon. Francis D. Winston has presided over its deliberations, do extend to him our thanks and best wishes for his future happiness and prosperity."

Senator Britt expresses the appreciation of the minority members at the fairness and ability with which President Winston has presided over the deliberations of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Kluttz, the Senate adjourns until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

CAROLINA.

I love thee, Carolina!
Broad thy rivers, bright and clear;
Majestic are thy mountains;
Dense thy forests, dark and drear;
Grows the pine tree, tall and stately,
Weeps the willow drooping low,
Bloom the elegantine and jasmine;
Nods the daisy, white as snow.

CHORUS.

Let me live in Carolina
Till life's toil and strife are past!
Let us sleep in Carolina
When our sun shall set at last—

Where the mocking-bird is singing,
Where my heart is fondly clinging,
I would sleep when life is o'er
Sweetly on the old home shore.

I love thee, Carolina!
Peace and plenty there abide;
How beautiful thy harvest,
Gathered in at autumntide.
Fair thy fields, where grows the cotton,
Light and fleecy, soft and white,
And the golden wheat doth ripple
Like a sea of amber light.

I love thee, Carolina!
Land of story and of song;
Of patriot and hero—
How their deeds to mem'ry throng!
Great in peace and great in battle;
Heart of fire to love or hate;
Brightest star of all the Union
Is the glorious Old North State!

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That the report of the commissioners appointed to examine the accounts of the State officers be received and referred to a committee of seven, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House.

DOUGHTON.

To the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Your committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, to whom was referred the report of the commissioners appointed to examine the accounts of certain State officers, under section 5378 of the Revisal of 1905, beg leave to report that we have spent considerable time in the discharge of our duties, and have heard the statements of the Auditor, Insurance Commissioner, Fish Commissioner, Superintendent of Public Instruction and of the three members of the said Auditing Committee, and others. Our findings are as follows:

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

Said Auditing Committee disapproved voucher No. 51833, for the sum of \$99.87, payable to N. A. Watson, sheriff. We find that said voucher was a warrant issued to cover the expenses of bringing a fugitive from justice from another State. He was a foreigner, and it became necessary for said sheriff to take another person with him who knew and could identify the said fugitive and interpret his language, and that of the amount for which said warrant was drawn \$72.30 was for mileage, and no more than covered the mileage of said sheriff and the person taken with him. This made two fares each way, or four fares at $2\frac{1}{2}$ cents per mile, a total of 10 cents per mile for one person for the distance traveled.

The Governor explained this matter to the Auditor and approved the voucher made out for the claim.

Section 3188 of the Revisal, which authorizes the Governor to employ special agents, with sufficient escort to apprehend fugitives from justice, provides that "he may from time to time issue his warrants on the State Treasurer for sufficient sums of money for such purpose." Section 3189 also provides: "In all cases where the Governor of the State has made a requisition on the Governor of another State for any fugitive from justice, and has sent an agent to receive said fugitive, it shall be lawful for the Governor to issue a warrant on the State Treasurer for the amount of money necessary to pay the expenses of said agent and other costs in the arresting of said fugitive from justice, to be paid by the Treasurer of the State."

In view of these statutes, we are of opinion that the Governor had full authority in law to order the payment of said claim; that said authority was properly exercised in this instance, and that the Auditor acted properly and lawfully in issuing his warrant therefor.

The thirty dollars paid for servant hire at the Governor's Mansion, referred to in the report of the Auditing Committee, was first paid to the Governor under authority of law contained in a resolution ratified February 17, 1885.

In about 1891 the Governor's Mansion was completed, and this $30 was continued to be paid the Governors for servant hire. From that time until December, 1897, this amount was drawn on the laborers' pay roll; since that time this amount has been paid by a separate warrant, drawn in favor of the Keeper of the Capitol and by him turned over to the Governor to be applied upon the payment of servant hire at the mansion. This did not pay the whole bill for the servant hire, the same being $65 per month. All Governors of the State, without regard to party affiliation, have received this $30 per month since 1885. It appears that the Keeper of the Capitol has the right, under chapter 106, Vol. 2 of the Revisal, to appoint and control all lawful subordinate servants about the Capitol and its appurtenances, to cleanse and care for the same, and it is made his duty to "take charge of and keep in repair the public buildings of the State in the city of Raleigh." The Governor's Mansion is a public building and is an appurtenance of the Capitol, within the meaning of the said chapter of the Revisal, and we are of the opinion that the Keeper of the Capitol has the authority to employ servants to keep up and care for the same and its grounds, and that $30 per month is not more than is reasonable for such servants as are required for that duty, as distinguished from the immediate domestics who serve the Governor and his family.

Whether the General Assembly of 1907 (chapter 830) intended to limit the servant help at the mansion (for which the State should pay) to a night watchman is not clear, and should be made definite by statute, but in our opinion that statute did not take away from the Keeper of the Capitol his power to employ servants. The Auditor submitted the specific question to the Attorney-General as to whether he should, under the law, issue a voucher for this $30, and that officer gave his opinion that it was authorized by law and the Auditor should issue the same. The Attorney-General being by law the legal adviser of the Auditor and all State officers, we find that it was proper for him to be guided by his construction of the law and to issue said warrant.

The payment of this money has been approved by every legislative committee from 1887, of all political parties (except the last one), and every Governor has accepted the same under the belief that the payment was legal. We recommend that the General Assembly enact a law taking this question out of the realm of controversy.

The Auditing Committee makes the following finding as to other employees:

"We further find that during the past two years the Keeper of the Capitol has employed five more persons upon his weekly pay roll than allowed by the act of the General Assembly of 1907."

This committee understands that these employees are janitors for Adjutant General, for the Commissioner of Labor and Printing, the Commissioner of Insurance, the Attorney-General and the Supreme Court building. The janitors for the Adjutant General and Commissioner of Labor and Printing were especially provided for by chapter 989 of Public Laws of 1907. The janitors for the Insurance Department and for the Attorney-General were appointed under authority of section 5006 of the Revisal and after a ruling of the Attorney-General. (See pages 162-163 of his biennial report for 1907-'08.) The other janitor, being the extra janitor for the Supreme Court, was provided for by chapter 306, Laws of 1893, and continued to draw his pay under that act until 1905, after the adoption of the Revisal, since which time this janitor has been allowed the Supreme Court by the Board of Public Buildings and Grounds.

The Auditing Committee refuse to approve voucher No. 46049, issued to T. B. Womack, Esq., for $250, and say in their report that Mr. Womack appeared for defendant in the "Nalle" case, tried in the Superior Court of Wake County. This is an erroneous finding of fact, as Mr. Womack in that case appeared for the State by virtue of his employment by the Governor. We further find that this was a case where the State was interested. The defendant, an attendant in the Insane Asylum at Raleigh, was charged with the murder of an unfortunate inmate of the said asylum by cruel and brutal treatment, and incidentally the conduct of the institution was involved. Our finding is that in this case the Governor was fully authorized by law to employ counsel in the case, and in so doing was actuated by a desire to protect the unfortunate of the State in the care of its institution. We think it was eminently wise for the Governor in this manner to have shown to the people and all attendants in such institutions that the State would not tolerate mistreatment of the unfortunate inmates, but would prosecute with the utmost vigor all persons guilty thereof.

The Auditing Committee disapproved voucher No. 49926, to W. M. Bond, and No. 49927, to H. S. Ward, upon the ground that it was "unable to find any law which justifies the issuance of these warrants," and because it failed "to see that the State had any interest, direct or remote, in the above-entitled case," referring to Daniel v. Homer, in which said attorneys appeared for the State. This case involved the validity of chapter 292, Public Laws of 1905, by which it was made unlawful and indictable to fish with nets in certain sections of Albemarle and Pamlico sounds within a certain period. The purpose of this law was to protect the fish, especially the shad, during the breeding season, and compel the leaving open and free from nets of a sufficient way to enable them to reach their spawning grounds in fresh water. In no other way could these fish reproduce. It was therefore necessary to enact and enforce this law, in order to prevent their complete extermination. The fishing interests of these sounds and the many rivers flowing into them constitute one of the most extensive and valuable resources of the State, affecting not only the people on the coast, but those for more than a hundred miles inland along said rivers. It was therefore a matter of great moment to the State to preserve this great interest from threatened destruction by a few fishermen, who were stretching their nets so entirely across the sound that no fish could pass up the same to their breeding grounds in the spring. The plaintiff, Daniels, in the case of Daniels v. Homer, was one of these fishermen, who brought this suit against * Homer, Assistant State Fish Commissioner, whose duty it was to enforce this law, for the purpose of testing the law and declaring it invalid. The defendant Homer had no personal interest whatever in the action, but, as an officer of the State, represented the State only. Governor Glenn, being advised of the important interest of the State involved, employed Messrs. W. M. Bond and H. S. Ward to appear for the State in the matter. The case was vigorously contested, and came to the Supreme Court twice, being won by the State each time. The facts are fully set out in the opinions of the Supreme Court, in 139 N. C. Reports, page 219, and 146 N. C., 275. We therefore find that said warrants were proper and fully authorized by law.

The statute under which the Governor employed Messrs. Womack, Bond and Ward is as follows: "In every case, civil or criminal, in any court in the State or in any other State or Territory, or in any United States Court, in which the State of North Carolina is interested, the Governor may employ such counsel as he may deem proper or necessary to represent the interest of the State. In all cases in which the Governor is authorized to employ counsel he may direct the Auditor to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer to compensate such counsel." Revisal, sec. 5332. In re voucher No. 52758, issued to A. J. Barwick, in the sum of $72, Mr. Barwick, it is admitted, is chief clerk in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and his salary as such clerk is fixed by chapter 830. Laws of 1907. He drew the $72, not as clerk of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, but as an employee of the State Board of Education, which is officially separate from the State Department of Public Instruction. His duties as clerk of the superintendent, and his salary as such, did not debar him from performing service and receiving compensation for work done for the State Board of Education. The Attorney-General gave the State Auditor and State Treasurer opinions that Mr. Barwick was entitled, under the facts stated, to draw his pay as a member of the State Board of Examiners. His opinion protects the officers, and we believe is correct. We find that Mr. Barwick rendered efficient service to the State as member of the State Board of Examiners, and that his employment as such did not militate against his duty as clerk of the superintendent.

We also find that voucher No. 677, drawn in favor of Barrett & Thompson, architects, to pay them for cuts or models of schoolhouses furnished the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was proper. The Auditor was justified in drawing a warrant for the payment of this amount and the Treasurer in paying the same. A reasonable construction of Article IX, section 10, of the Constitution of the State, and of section 4053 of the Revisal, in our opinion, gives to the State Board of Education power to incur the expense for which this voucher was issued. We cannot see how the loan of the State Educational fund to build schoolhouses, under the law, could have been practically and economically made without incurring this expense, which every one must admit was proper and necessary.

The Auditing Committee, in their report, refer to voucher No. 404135, drawn in favor of the hospital at Goldsboro for $9,000, for money to repair some building at that hospital. We have thoroughly examined the Treasurer's and Auditor's books and find no such warrant and no such voucher number. We find that the Goldsboro Hospital does not owe anything for furniture or repairs. (It owes about $11,000 for supplies which the Governor and Council of State authorized.)

FISH COMMISSION.

In respect to that part of the report of the Auditing Committee which states that Mr. Meekins, the Fish Commissioner of North Carolina, bought all his food supplies from the firm of which he was a member, rented his own boat to the State and rented an office from himself, we find the following facts: The Fish Commission was created by Public Laws of 1907, ch. 977, to be supported "by license fees, taxes, fines or other imposts upon the fisheries or fines imposed for infraction of the fishing laws," which act did not go into effect until the first day of June, 1907. This act provided for the appointment of a State Fish Commissioner to execute the law, under the supervision and control of the Geological and Economic Survey Board, and provided in section 4 that the Fish Commissioner is authorized, by and with the consent of the Geological and Economic Survey Board, to purchase or rent such boats, nets and other equipment as may be necessary to enable him to carry out the duties of his office. The act required that all funds of the commission be paid into the State Treasury, and that they could only be drawn out upon the order of the Geological and Economic Survey Board. Said act provided for a survey and marking "in a prominent manner those areas of the waters of the State in which the use of all or any fishing appliances are prohibited by law," and provided for many other things, the accomplishment of which would require the expenditure of a considerable sum of money. It was necessary for this survey to be made before January, 1908, in order that the law might be enforced during the fishing season, which runs from January to May. But there was no fund in the State Treasury available for this purpose, the total receipts for the office for the first six months being only $93. It was therefore impossible to do this preliminary work so necessary to a proper enforcement of the act, unless some one would advance funds for the purpose.

His Excellency, Robert B. Glenn, appointed Theo. S. Meekins Fish Commissioner, who entered upon the discharge of his duties with zeal and enthusiasm, and rented a boat, equipped for the purpose of the commission, at $100 per month. When it became necessary to purchase supplies for said boat and its men, said Meekins did so, at Avon, Edenton, Hatteras and other places, and the commission, having no funds to pay for the same, had them charged to Evans & Meekins, a firm, of which said Meekins was a member, at Manteo, N. C., who paid for them and carried the accounts, without charging the State any profit whatever, until the commission had collected funds to pay them. The Fish Commissioner also purchased supplies from said firm of Evans & Meekins, but much of it was before the receipt of the commission of $93, and but for these advancements so made the commission would have been unable to promote its work. When the commission had received enough money from licenses issued to pay its liabilities, the said Evans & Meekins made out their account, charging the commission with all supplies they had paid for and all they had furnished. The said accounts were all submitted to and approved by the Geological and Economic Survey Board, who alone had authority under the law to approve the same, and warrants were issued by the Auditor in consequence of such approval.

We also find that there was no office in Manteo suitable for the purpose of the commission that could be rented, and that said Theo. S. Meekins, after consulting the Geological and Economic Survey Board, built a house, at a cost of something over $1,400, three rooms of which, with the approval of the said board, he rented to said commission at $8.33 per month. We also find that the furniture for the office of the Fish Commission was purchased by said Theo. S. Meekins, in the name of his firm of Evans & Meekins, who had commercial rating, paid for by them and charged upon their books, without any profit, until the commission collected funds with which to pay for same.

In respect to renting his own boat, we find that said Fish Commissioner rented a boat, in 1907, at a cost of $100 per month. About February 1st, in the midst of the fishing season, the owner of said boat declined to further rent it. Said commissioner attempted for twenty-two days to execute the duties of his office without a boat, but finding he could not do so, and there being no other boat he could rent, he, with the approval of said Geological and Economic Survey Board, purchased a boat with his own funds for $800 and rented it to said commission for sixty-eight days, at the price of $60 per month, making the sum total of $136. He rented said boat only during the time he was obliged to have one and could get no other. The rental of it and all facts relating thereto were known to and approved of by the Geological and Economic Survey Board, which scrutinized and approved of all expenditures by said Theo. S. Meekins, Fish Commissioner. That the total receipts of said commissioner were $3,876 and disbursements $3,835.62, leaving a balance to the credit of the commission of $40.38, as shown by the voucher in the office of the Auditor.

While the dealings of said Theo. S. Meekins, Fish Commissioner, with the firm of Evans & Meekins, of which he was a member, and the renting of the house and boat owned by himself to said commission, were technically in contravention of section 3572 of the Revisal, it was all done with the approval of the board under which he served, was to the advantage of the State and, under the circumstances, was the only way in which he could have discharged the important duties imposed upon him by the law.

We deem it but just, however, to the members of the Auditing Committee to say that in making their investigation of the matter they did not have the advantage of all the evidence taken before this committee and filed with this report.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

This committee considered with very great care the criticisms of the Auditing Committee upon the Insurance Department. The committee had before it the Insurance Commissioner, who filed a written statement and made a verbal statement, answering all questions which were asked and giving all information which this committee desired. There were also present two members of the Auditing Committee, who were examined by this committee as to their criticisms in detail, and each member who signed the report was invited to be present. We have, in addition, inspected the office of the Insurance Commissioner, his methods of bookkeeping, the records kept by him, the manner in which he keeps his securities and the general manner in which he performs the duties of his office.

We find as a fact, and desire to emphasize the statement made by the Auditing Committee, that no evidence of any character of dishonesty on the part of anyone handling the funds or securities has been disclosed, and there is no suggestion of any such. On the contrary, the Insurance Commissioner appears to have collected every dollar from the insurance companies which he should have collected, and every item thereof is plainly entered in ink upon his day book, which is a well-bound, substantial record, and also in the respective ledger accounts which he keeps with each insurance company doing business in the State; and he has properly and fully accounted for and paid over to the proper authorities all funds which came or should have come into his hands. We find that he has kept the securities deposited by the several insurance companies, in accordance with law, in safety-deposit boxes in a vault in a bank in the city, which is reputed to be as near burglar-proof and fireproof as such vaults are made at this time. The State has provided no vault of a modern character sufficiently burglar-proof and fireproof for any of the State offices, including the Insurance Commissioner and the State Treasurer. The Insurance Commissioner is now occupying temporary quarters in a rented brick and frame building on Fayetteville Street. In it there is no vault of any character. The Insurance Commissioner has provided himself with a large, modern, fireproof safe, in which the records of his office and the valuable papers are stored. But he has deemed that this safe is not sufficiently strong protection for the securities in his hands, and therefore he rents a safety-deposit box and deposits his valuable papers and securities in a bank vault. Your committee believes this is the only absolutely safe and practical means of protecting these securities until the State shall have provided more commodious quarters with modern vaults.

We examined with care the methods of bookkeeping adopted by the Insurance Commissioner. As the transactions of his office consist of a large number of small items, aggregating nearly $250,000 during a year, it makes it tedious to check up each item, and we believe a more modern and easily understood system of bookkeeping should be installed, under which balances should be made at regular periods, and we are glad to note that the Insurance Commissioner is installing certain changes of bookkeeping along the lines suggested by the expert accountant who was employed by the Auditing Committee with the consent and at the expense of the Insurance Commissioner, which latter fact the Auditing Committee failed to report to the Legislature. The expert accountant, in his letter to the Auditing Committee, stated he could not make an absolutely correct statement of this account without going back and checking up the entire business of the office since its establishment in 1899. This we believe erroneous. We have examined the books and find that prior auditing committees have checked up the books since the passage of the law authorizing such checking up, and evidences of such checkings are shown by the books themselves. And there is no evidence in any of the books or suggestions in any of the records in the office of any improper conduct or any failure to collect fees and taxes, or any failure to account for moneys or funds of any character which have come into the hands of the Insurance Commissioner, but the contrary appears to be the facts. It will be noted that the Auditing Committee, at their last examination, not only checked by an expert the books for the preceding year, but rechecked them for the year prior thereto, although they had examined the office the year before, as appears by their endorsements upon the books certifying to their correctness.

The letter of the expert bookkeeper, adopted by the Auditing Committee as part of their report, states "that no cash book has been kept, showing the accurate receipts and disbursements of the funds handled during the period of their investigation."

We find this statement to be very misleading, in that it conveys the impression that no record was kept of the cash received nor of the funds disbursed. Such is not the fact, and we do not believe the Auditing Committee could have intended to be so understood. It is true that he does not keep a book which he calls a "cash book" or which accords in the technical method of its keeping precisely with what is termed a "cash book," in the modern expert system of bookkeeping. Said commissioner does keep, however, in permanent record form, a full, complete and detailed record of all funds which come into his office, which was exhibited to this committee and which we carefully examined. It is called by him a "day book." It is a well-bound, substantial record, kept in ink, in which the said commissioner enters contemporaneously with its receipt every item of cash paid into his office, by check or otherwise, each of such entries showing the date of payment, the person or corporation paying the same, the amount paid and to what fund it belongs. If, as in many instances is the case, the payment includes amounts due to different funds, and also fees due the commissioner, the entry shows clearly and accurately, to a cent, how much of it is due to each separate fund and how much is due the commissioner as fees. These amounts are then carried from this book to the separate ledger accounts which he keeps with each fund with each insurance company doing business in the State and each town participating in any of said funds.

The commissioner has not heretofore entered in the same book his disbursements. He does not, however, make any disbursements, in the usual sense of the word, except from the fund for investigation of fires. At the end of every thirty days he simply pays over to the State Treasurer the amount he has in hand for the State, and at the periods provided by law remits to the proper authorities the total fund he has collected for them. These payments are made by check, drawn by him as Insurance Commissioner, stating for what purpose it is drawn. These amounts are charged up in his bank accounts, and he files the receipts of said Treasurer and other authorities for the same, and also the canceled checks referred to. His bank account, therefore, shows all disbursements.

He keeps a separate ledger account of the fund for investigation of fires, and every item disbursed from said fund is properly entered in this account.

We find, therefore, that while it is true that he has not kept in the same book accounts of both receipts and disbursements, he has always kept in one book a complete and full account of all receipts, and in another a full and detailed account of all disbursements, and that the two together constitute a full, complete and detailed record of all the receipts and disbursements of his office.

We do concur, however, in the recommendation of the Auditing Committee that, in view of the large proportions to which this office has attained, the commissioner should change this method and adopt and keep a "cash book," in accordance with the modern system of expert bookkeeping, which should be a detailed record, both of receipts and disbursements, and show the daily balance in the hands of the commissioner. We are pleased to report that the commissioner, at the time of our examination, was adopting this recommendation.

The Auditing Committee intimates that there has been a mingling by the Insurance Commissioner of his personal funds with the department funds. We find the facts to be that the Insurance Commissioner heretofore, when receiving a check which embraced amounts due the State, and also fees due himself, has always deposited the whole check to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner, without taking out said fees. He would from time to time draw out a part of said fees, but never the whole amount of them. He has purposely allowed a portion of such fees due him individually to accumulate in this account, in order that he might at all times be sure of having to the credit of his official account more than enough to meet all amounts due to the State.

At the time of this investigation this account showed a balance of fees due the Insurance Commissioner, in excess of the deposit which belonged to the State, amounting to $4,988.09. With this exception, there has been no mingling of the public and private funds. The records in the Insurance Commissioner's office show exactly and clearly the amounts due to the Insurance Commissioner and to the State which were deposited to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner, and his personal bank account is kept entirely separate from his account as Insurance Commissioner.

The change of law which went into effect January 1, 1909, requires that all these fees shall belong to the State and that the Commissioner shall be paid a fixed salary of $3,500 per year; so that hereafter the Insurance Commissioner will have no personal interest in this bank account. We find that there has been no improper mingling of private funds with State funds on the part of the Insurance Commissioner.

There appears in the report of the special committee this sentence: "Coupons which the commissioner claims were items not due to the State and were handled as a personal matter and entered in his ledger account." This committee does not know whether this is intended as a criticism or not. The only facts in regard to coupons brought to the attention of this committee are that, as coupons on bonds deposited by the several insurance companies with the Insurance Commissioner became due, the company depositing the same is entitled, under section 4782 of the Revisal, to collect them. In some instances, when such coupons became due, the company, instead of coming to Raleigh to clip off and collect said coupons, requested the commissioner to do it for them. This he did for their accommodation, depositing the proceeds in bank in his name as Insurance Commissioner and sending to the company his check therefor, stating therein for what purpose it was drawn. The entire transaction appears on the bank books.

The Auditing Committee reports that "We find that, under section 4780, Revisal of North Carolina, companies depositing securities with the Insurance Commissioner are required to legally transfer same to him, as Insurance Commissioner, and his successors in office, for the common benefit of all the holders of its 'registered capital' policies. In a great many cases this statute has not been at all complied with, and the fact that a great many of the securities deposited here are in the nature of stocks and bonds, payable to 'bearer,' shows the importance of this law being fully complied with." This committee assumes that the Auditing Committee, by referring to the section of the Revisal, means to criticise the securities deposited with the Insurance Commissioner.

For the protection of all holders of "registered policies," the criticism appears to be twofold: First, as to the character of the securities accepted by the Insurance Commissioner. This depends entirely upon the construction of the law (sections 4780 and 4731). Since the report of the Auditing Committee has been made public, this matter has been referred to the Attorney-General, who rules that the Insurance Commissioner's construction of the statute is the correct one, and that the Auditing Committee's construction is wrong. A copy of said ruling is hereto attached and asked to be taken as part of this report. We concur in this opinion of the Attorney-General, and find that the Insurance Commissioner has acted in accordance with the law in accepting securities under section 4780 of the Revisal, but we are of the opinion that the law ought to be changed, so that the commissioner would be directed to accept, under said section 4780, only the class of securities described in section 4731 of the Revisal, and so recommend. The second criticism, "That a good many of the securities deposited here are in the nature of stocks and bonds 'payable to bearer,'" There are no stocks deposited with the commissioner, payable to bearer. The bonds are North Carolina State bonds and the like that are payable to bearer, and we think the law is sufficiently complied with by their depositing with the Insurance Commissioner without an actual endorsement. The transfer of certain other securities deposited with the Insurance Commissioner was criticised by the Auditing Committee. The transfer of said securities was made as follows: At the time of depositing them there would be made out a detailed descriptive list of the securities, to which was attached a transfer as follows:

"This agreement, made and entered into this the of, A. D. 190., by and between the Insurance Company of, N. C., of the first part, and J. R. Young, Insurance Commissioner, and his successors in office, of the second part, witnesseth:

"That said party of first part, the Insurance Company, has this day transferred to said party of second part, J. R. Young, Insurance Commissioner, and his successors in office, the securities represented in the attached list, and does hereby assign and transfer each and every one of said securities to said Insurance Commissioner, with full power to take, hold, collect, assign and use said securities for the benefit of the policy holders of said Insurance Company, and in their stead to do each and every act and power legal for said company as the original holder of said securities to do."

- * We think such transfer was sufficient. However, in each instance, the attention of the insurance companies having been called thereto, transfers acceptable to the Auditing Committee were procured before they filed their report, although deemed by the Insurance Commissioner unnecessary under the law.

The Auditing Committee make the following report as to the record of securities deposited with the Insurance Commissioner:

"We further find that, under section 4784, Revisal of North Carolina, the Insurance Commissioner is required to keep a careful record of all the securities deposited by each company. We regret to say that this section of the law has not been followed at all. We find that there is on deposit in the office of the Insurance Commissioner securities aggregating $1,000,000, and the only record (if it can be termed record) which the Insurance Commissioner has of them is a small book which he carries in his vest pocket, and upon which some of the securities appear, all of which are written in lead pencil." We find that the records as to these securities are kept in the following manner: As an insurance company makes a deposit with the Insurance Commissioner it furnishes him with a duplicate record of each security, one of which is receipted by the commissioner and returned to the company, and the other is kept by the commissioner in his safe in his office. The securities are properly labeled, bundled and deposited in safety boxes in the vault of a bank in the city of Raleigh, the commissioner having no vault or safety box in his department. The commissioner, in addition to these records, has been keeping a record in a book 4x7 inches, containing 180 pages of good paper and durably bound. The entries in this book have been made in pencil. This size book has been adopted because the commissioner thought it desirable to keep it locked in the vault in his safe, and a large one could not be kept in that way. Many of the entries in this book are made in the vault, where the actual securities are kept and checked up, and cannot well be made in the office, away from the securities.

While this is a full record of such securities, we do not think it is of the character of permanency contemplated by law. It ought not to be in pencil, and ought to be in a book of the size and binding generally used for ledgers, and we recommend that in future the record be kept in a book of that character and be made in ink. The Auditing Committee criticises the department for failing to put in permanent book form a record of the commissioner's proceedings in the official examination of all companies. This committee does not believe that the law contemplates this, and if it does, it is impracticable to be complied with. Files are made and kept complete of each examination, thereby constituting the record we think the statute calls for.

The Auditing Committee reports that the statute (section 4823) requires the Insurance Commissioner to collect a tax of one-fifth of one per cent of the gross premium receipts of fire companies to defray the expenses of investigating suspicious fires, and requires that a special account of all money disbursed under this section be kept and included in the annual report. They report that this section has not been complied with. We find in the office of the Insurance Commissioner full, complete and detailed accounts of the receipts and disbursements of this fund, but the disbursements are not set out in his annual report.

The Auditing Committee reports that since their examination certain insurance companies have replaced and substituted further and additional securities which meet their approval. This committee finds that during the time that the Auditing Committee was examining the Insurance Commissioner's office there were a number of changes in the securities, just as there are changes in securities at all times during the year, and especially at the beginning of the year. No instance was brought to our attention in which additional securities or change of securities was made by reason of the action of the Auditing Committee.

RALEIGH, N. C., February 9, 1909.

HON. JAMES R. YOUNG,

Insurance Commissioner,Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your inquiry as to the proper construction of section 4780 of the Revisal of 1905, I beg to say that, in order to protect registered policies, the section provides that the insurance companies may deposit with the Insurance Commissioner securities of the kind now required and authorized by law for the investment of life insurance funds.

Section 4731 provides that the capital stock of insurance companies shall be invested only in first mortgages on real estate in North Carolina, in bonds of the United States or any of the States whose bonds do not sell for less than par, in county or municipal bonds, where the net indebtedness of the town or county does not exceed five per cent of the assessed value of the property in said town or county.

If these two sections embrace all the law in regard to the investment of insurance funds, then clearly the class of securities required by section 4780 would be that specified in section 4731.

But, unearthing the doctrine of In pari materia, nomen clarum sed non venerabile, we find section 4737, which is as follows: "Whenever it shall appear by examination, as authorized by law, that any insurance company organized under the laws of this State holds as collateral security for the payment of any loan any stock, bond or security of whatever description which has not a cash market value of at least 25 per centum more than the amount of such loan, the Insurance Commissioner shall have authority to require the reduction of such loan or an increase of collateral security, so that the security shall be at least 25 per centum in excess of the amount loaned; and if such company fail to comply with such requirement within ten days after receiving written notice thereof from the commissioner, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to disallow such loan and to deduct the amount thereof from the assets of such company; and if it shall appear upon examination that any such insurance company holds as security for any loan any mortgage upon real estate which is not a first lien, or that the value of such real estate is less than 50 per centum in excess of the loan which it is mortgaged to secure, the Insurance Commissioner shall have authority to disallow any such loan and deduct the amount thereof from the assets of the company holding the same, after having given the company at least twenty days' notice, in writing, to change or conform any such loan to the requirements of this section."

This section clearly authorizes insurance funds to be invested in stocks, bonds and mortgages on real estate, without limitation as to character or location, except that the market value of the stocks and bonds shall be 25 per cent more than the loan secured, and the actual value of the real estate shall be 50 per cent more than the loan.

Section 4731 requires that the capital stock, and that only, shall be invested in the securities designated in said section.

Section 4737 authorizes investments in other securities, subject only to the limitations above mentioned and to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner.

It will be observed that section 4780 uses the words "required and authorized." The kind of securities required are found in section 4731; the kind authorized, in section 4737. This construction is supported by the amendment to section 4731 by the act of 1907, which provides that when the capital stock exceeds $100,000 the excess over $100,000 may be invested in securities approved by the commissioner.

The Investigating Committee doubtless had in mind only sections 4780 and 4731, and probably did not carefully consider section 4737, discussed above.

While it is not germane to your inquiry, I will add that, in my opinion, it would promote the interests of the State, the insurance companies and the policy holders for section 4780 to be amended by requiring the securities deposited to protect registered policies to be of the class designated in section 4731, but without any geographical limitations.

A municipal bond of a town or county in a sister State coming up to the requirements mentioned in section 4731, or a first mortgage on real estate in a sister State covering land whose actual value is 50 per cent more than the loan secured, ought, for the purpose of protecting registered policies, to be placed on the same footing as North Carolina securities. Indeed, this is necessary, if our home companies are expected to do business in other States.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) T. W. BICKETT,
Attorney-General.

REPORT OF LEGISLATIVE EXAMINING COMMITTEE.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

We, your committee, appointed under and by section 5378, Revisal 1905, to audit, investigate and report to your honorable body the condition of the State Treasurer's office, Auditor's office, Insurance Department of North Carolina, amount of revenue received in, derived from and paid through and by the said department, beg leave to report as follows:

In the performance of the work entrusted to and the discharge of the obligation imposed upon us, we spent considerable time in making a thorough examination and complete investigation of these various departments. As it was our duty under the law, we made a careful examination of the various laws under which vouchers were issued by the State Auditor and which were paid by the State Treasurer, and, with the exception of those named below, we find the same correct and justified by the law under which they were drawn.

TREASURER'S OFFICE.

We find that the Treasurer had on hand belonging to the General Fund December 1, 1906, the sum of.....$ 347,524.38
That he received on said fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907..... 2,603,293.35
Making total receipts of the General Fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907..... 2,950,817.73
We find that the disbursements against said fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907, amounted to.. 2,655,282.20
Balance due General Fund December 1, 1907..... 295,535.53

EDUCATIONAL FUND.

We find balance due Educational Fund December 1, 1907. $ 58,431.58
Receipts due said fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907..... 49,453.93
Making total receipts of Educational Fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907..... 107,885.51
We find that the disbursements of this fund from December 1, 1906, to November 30, 1907, amount to..... 97,913.02
Balance due Educational Fund December 1, 1907, was... 9,972.49

GENERAL FUND.

Balance due General Fund December 1, 1907.....$ 295,535.53
Receipts received on General Fund from December 1, 1907, to November 30, 1908..... 2,866,439.62
Total receipts of General Fund December 30, 1908..... 3,161,975.15
Disbursements against the General Fund from December 1, 1907, to November 30, 1908..... 2,605,954.81
Balance due General Fund November 30, 1908..... 556,020.34

EDUCATIONAL FUND.

Balance due December 1, 1907.....$ 9,972.49
Receipts from November 30, 1907, to December 1, 1908... 55,536.60
Total receipts to December 1, 1908..... 65,536.09
Disbursements against said fund from November 30, 1907, to December 1, 1908..... 58,144.01
Balance due Educational Fund December 1, 1908..... 7,392.08

We find that the Treasurer has on hand December 1, 1908, total balance belonging to these funds, the sum of $563,412.42. We have examined the record of his bank account and find that he has to his credit sufficient funds in the various banks in which he deposits to meet the above. We think it due the State Treasurer to say that the books in his department are kept in a most admirable manner. We find that the various accounts kept between this department and the various State institutions are neatly and carefully kept. We feel that the State Treasurer is to be congratulated on having such an efficient force in his office.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

We find the records in the Auditor's office kept in first-class shape, the vouchers properly filed, the warrants are neatly written and the various accounts of the State properly indexed. We heartily endorse the conduct and work of this department, except in that we recommend that more attention be given to the law under which claims are filed against the State before the Auditor allows a warrant to be issued upon the Treasurer for same. This, we feel, doubtless will be done in the future, and will be of material assistance to the department and service to the State. We find that the following vouchers were issued by the Auditor upon the State Treasurer and paid by him, none of which we can approve:

Voucher No. 51833, drawn for $99.87, payable to N. A. Watson, sheriff. This seems to be for the expense of bringing a fugitive from justice back to this State who had fled therefrom, and the bill which he filed and which was sworn to allows him 10 cents per mile actual expense, whereas section 3189, under which the warrant was drawn, in our opinion, does not warrant or justify the payment of an amount greater than his actual mileage. In this connection we desire to say that there have been a great many vouchers issued under section 3188, Revisal of North Carolina, which has reference to the arrest of fugitives from justice. We feel that the State in a great many of these cases has been imposed upon. In none of these cases has the law been complied with, in that it does not appear that any proclamation has been filed—in some cases no record that proclamation was ever published or reward offered; and we think that before any further amount is paid out under this section it should be absolutely complied with in every respect. We desire also to say that, in our opinion, in the bringing of convicts to the penitentiary from the various counties of the State the sheriff should be required to come the nearest route. We find that in some cases this has not been done, and before issuing warrant for the payment of this expense the Auditor should ascertain that the statute requiring this has been complied with.

We find that in 1885 the Legislature of North Carolina passed an act which was in commutation of rent, by which the Governor of North Carolina was allowed the sum of $30 per month, so long as the Executive Mansion was unfit for occupancy, and no longer. Upon examination we ascertained that the various Governors of North Carolina, from that period until this, without any exception, have been collecting this amount. The form in which it is now paid is in the shape of a bill made out by the Keeper of the Capitol, in the following words and figures: "The State of North Carolina to Governor, debtor. To servant hire in the Executive Mansion during the month, $30."

We cannot approve of these vouchers, in that we do not think there is any law which justifies the issuance thereof; and even if there were, the whole matter has been irregular, in that the Keeper of the Capitol informs your committee that he has never employed any servant within the Executive Mansion, that he does not know whether or not anyone is employed or ever has been, and that he has no knowledge as to the wages paid any domestic servant employed therein. He further states that he collects this amount himself from the State Treasurer each month, receipting the bill himself, and pays same over to the Governor, for which he asks no receipt and takes none. We feel that this is unwarranted, and that if such a course can be followed, the cause of the necessities of proper entertainment, of requirements made because of the high position he occupies, there would be nothing to prevent the payment each month to the Governor of such an amount that he might deem proper and which his peculiar position might require.

We further find that during the past two years the "Keeper" of the Capitol has employed five more persons upon his weekly pay roll than allowed by the act passed by the General Assembly of 1907.

We also report to your honorable body that examination of his accounts discloses the fact that Mr. T. S. Meekins, Fish Commissioner of the State of North Carolina, an office created and established by the Legislature of 1907, is a member of the firm of Evans & Meekins, Manteo, N. C., and that in the discharge of his duty he is required to rent a boat and patrol the waters of North Carolina to see that the law in regard to the fishing industry is properly enforced; that he is given authority under said act to purchase supplies for said boat and crew, and that in the pursuance of such authority he has bought a great many articles, for which he has rendered his account. We find that each article of food supply purchased by him during the last two years was bought by him from the firm of Evans & Meekins, of which he is a member; that he has sworn to the account as a member of the firm, and also approved the said account as Fish Commissioner. We further find that he has rented his own boat to the State, for which he has received the sum of $60 per month. We further find that he has rented an office from himself, for which he charges the sum of $8.33 per month. We feel that it is our duty to call this matter to the attention of your honorable body, as it is in violation of section 3572, Revisal of North Carolina.

We find that voucher No. 404135, drawn for the hospital at Goldsboro, is for the sum of $9,000 for money to repair some building, State Hospital. We think that this amount, if paid at all, should have been paid out under chapter 191, Laws of 1907, by which the Hospital Commission was established. It seems to us that when this commission was created and the sum of $500,000 was appropriated, to be expended by them under the provisions of said chapter, this $9,000 should have been approved and paid by them out of said fund, and not have been placed as an additional liability or appropriation of the State.

Voucher No. 46049, issued to T. B. Womack, in the sum of $250. This voucher was issued under section 5332, Revisal of North Carolina, and, in our opinion, same was improper and there was no law to justify the issuance or payment thereof. This money was to pay Mr. Womack for his services in representing the defendants, who were indicted by the grand jury of Wake County for murder of one Nalle, who was an inmate of the State Hospital at Raleigh. We cannot approve it.

As to voucher No. 49926, issued to, in the sum of $75, for services in the Supreme Court in the case of Daniels against Homer, paid out under section 5332, Revisal of 1905, we are unable to find any law which justifies the issuance of this warrant.

We find voucher No. 49927, in the amount of $75, issued to, for services in the above-entitled case, drawn under said section above referred to. For the reasons above set forth, we do not approve the issuance of this warrant, as we fail to see that the State of North Carolina had any interest, direct or remote, in the above-entitled case, and from the record before us it appears that this was a civil action between these litigants.

We find voucher No. 52758, issued to Mr. A. J. Barwick, in the sum of $72, was for services rendered as a member of the State Board of Examiners. It appears to us that Mr. Barwick is the chief clerk in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and as such clerk receives his compensation from the State. We think that the act passed by the General Assembly of 1907 regulating and fixing the salaries of the clerks in the various departments of the State Government, and under which Mr. Barwick is paid each month, contemplated that these clerks were not to receive any other account, either as salary or compensation, from the State for any service they render or office they fill under the State, and therefore Mr. Barwick was ineligible to occupy this position, to which he was appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction at the very time that he was discharging the duties of chief clerk in the office of said superintendent.

We find that voucher No. 677, drawn in favor of Barrett & Thompson, in the amount of $337.50, giving section 4053, Revisal of North Carolina, as the statute justifying the same, is, in our opinion, improper and should not have been paid. This bill was for cuts of schoolhouses furnished by Barrett & Thompson to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and there is absolutely nothing in the section under which it was drawn and paid that authorizes the issuance of this warrant.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

Realizing the importance of this department of the State Government, your committee gave it a most thorough and complete investigation. Established ten years ago, it has grown, until to-day it is one of the most important departments of the State Government. Indeed, its far-reaching effect and importance is not fully appreciated by our people. Under section 4725 of the Revisal of North Carolina, it is the duty of the Insurance Commissioner to have charge of and place the insurance upon the various institutions owned by the State. We find that on December 1, 1908, insurance was placed upon the State buildings in the following amounts:

Agricultural Department	$ 77,870
Appalachian Training School.....	10,000
A. and M. College (white).....	256,480
A. and M. College (colored).....	57,425
Blind School for White.....	89,520
Blind School for Colored.....	25,750
Capitol	50,000
Deaf and Dumb Institute, Morganton.....	115,500
Eastern Carolina Training School.....	12,000
Governor's Mansion	37,500
Hospital at Raleigh.....	194,050
Hospital at Morganton.....	344,000
Hospital at Goldsboro.....	126,425
Normal and Industrial College.....	262,400
Normal School (colored), Fayetteville.....	5,000
Normal School (colored), Elizabeth City.....	7,000
State's Prison	22,500
Soldiers' Home	17,500
Slater Normal	12,500
Supreme Court building and contents.....	87,000
University of North Carolina.....	337,500
Insurance Department	2,500
Books in Secretary of State's office.....	41,500

This makes the total amount of insurance carried upon State property $2,191,900.

Upon the examination of the books and accounts in the office of the Insurance Commissioner, your committee was unable to make any examination which would be satisfactory to them and do justice to your honorable body, to whom we were required to report the result of our investigation. We therefore secured the services of an expert accountant to assist us in making the examination which we felt it our duty to do. We transmit to your honorable body the letter directed to us by the gentleman who made this examination:

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners appointed to investigate the North Carolina State Officers, Raleigh, N. C.

GENTLEMEN:—Agreeable with your request, we have examined the books of Mr. James R. Young, State Insurance Commissioner, Raleigh, N. C. During a period of twenty-five months, beginning December 1, 1906, and ending January 1, 1909, beg leave to submit the following remarks:

We find that the books have not been properly kept and balanced, and that no cash book has been kept showing the accurate receipts and disbursements of the funds handled during the period of our investigation. Neither could we find at any time, before or since the period our investigation began, where any balance sheet had been rendered showing the balance on hand, if any; therefore we have been unable to determine what balance, if any, the State Insurance Commissioner should have had on hand or due the State on December 1, 1906. However, we find that his bank pass books show a balance in banks on December 1, 1906, of $12,152.69, in which should have been $3,248.40 belonging to investigation of fire fund, according to the commissioner's record, leaving a balance of $8,904.29, that, owing to the condition and manner in which the books have been kept, we are unable to determine where it belongs, except that the commissioner claims it has been his custom to always keep some $5,000 or $6,000 of his personal funds in his State depository bank to meet all balances that may be due to the State and not included in his remittances to the State Treasurer. We are also unable (without consuming more time and going further back into the record than your committee felt it had authority to do) to determine the accurate ledger's balance on December 1, 1906, for the reason that we found in some instances where business handled during the period of our investigation, which began on December 1, 1906, had been entered on the ledger prior to that date, but we did go back far enough to determine all charges against the commissioner for business so entered that belonged in the period of our investigation.

In view of the manner in which the books have been kept, and the absence of a proper cash book of receipts and disbursements, the best we have been able to do with the period you wish investigated was to establish all charges and collections of State funds according to the records found, and allow credits for proper disbursements according to bank vouchers, which we have done, and herewith enclose statement of same, showing a balance over in the bank amounting to $4,985.09, and which settlement you will note does not include the commissioner's fees, charter fees, appraisals advanced, cash and coupons, which the commissioner claims were items not due to the State and were handled as a personal matter and entered in his ledger account.

The commissioner gave us all the assistance we could ask for in making the investigation, and showed no disposition to conceal any of his records; and while our investigation did not disclose any evidences of dishonesty on the part of anyone handling the funds, we think the system of bookkeeping is very unsatisfactory and does not properly represent all accounts and items pertaining to the office of the Insurance Commissioner, as they should do; and we recommend that there be immediately installed a double-entry set of books to show at all times an accurate condition of all affairs pertaining to the office, which should include fees, expenses, advance costs and all balances on hand in the shape of cash and uncollected ledger accounts. We do not represent the statement attached to be absolutely correct, because we do not think an absolutely correct one could be made without going back and checking up the entire business of the office since the beginning, which we were advised was not desirable at this time; therefore the statement presented is the best we have been able to make for the period given us to investigate and the time allowed to do it in.

Yours very truly, SOUTHERN AUDIT COMPANY,
By C. L. SMITH, V. P.

We feel that the above letter fully explains the situation and needs no comment from us.

We find that, under section 4780, Revisal of North Carolina, any company depositing securities with the Insurance Commissioner is required to legally transfer same to him as Insurance Commissioner and his successors in office, for the common benefit of all the holders of its "registered-capital" policies. In a great many cases this statute has not been at all complied with; and the fact that a great many of the securities deposited here are in the nature of stocks and bonds, payable to "bearer," shows the importance of this law being fully complied with.

We further find that, under section 4784, Revisal of North Carolina, the Insurance Commissioner is required to keep a careful record of the securities deposited by each company. We regret to say that this section of the law has not been followed at all. We find that there is on deposit in the office of the Insurance Commissioner securities aggregating $1,000,000, and the only record (if it can be termed a record) which the Insurance Commissioner has of them is a small book, which he carries in his vest pocket, and upon which some of the securities appear, all of which are written in lead pencil. Your committee desires to call especial attention to this, and recommends to your honorable body that this law be fully complied with at once.

We find that section 4683, Revisal of North Carolina, requires that the Insurance Commissioner should keep in a permanent form a record of his proceedings, including a concise statement of the result of all official examinations of companies. This law is not kept, and we have been unable to find where the Insurance Commissioner has any record of this matter.

Under section 4823 the Insurance Commissioner is required to collect a tax of one-fifth of one per cent on all of the gross premium receipts of the fire companies to defray the expenses of investigating suspicious fires, and keep a separate account of all money disbursed under said chapter, and include same in his annual report. This has not been done, and your committee is unable to find any record which is satisfactory to them of the amount of receipts or disbursements under this section, and same is not included in the annual report filed by the commissioner, except in a lump sum, which, in our opinion, does not meet the statutes.

We find that section 4783, which requires that the securities deposited by the life companies to protect their policies registered under section 4780, is not followed. This statute is not complied with, as we find these securities are mingled with other securities placed by the companies for the protection of their guaranteed capital. We also find that the Insurance Commissioner makes his fiscal year end on March 31st. This should be changed, so as to end on November 30th, as does every other State institution.

We find a complete and accurate record of the investigation of fires, as he is required to keep.

Your committee desires to report to your honorable body that we have carefully examined the securities of the several domestic life insurance companies deposited by them with the Insurance Commissioner, under section 4780 of the Revisal, to secure the reserve of registered policies, as provided for in said section, and we find that sufficient securities have been deposited there to protect the reserves of the companies taking advantage of the provisions of this law.

Your committee desires to say further that they are of the opinion that the securities so deposited must be of the same character and dignity as required by section 4731 of the Revisal, and in that view of the law some of the companies registering their policies have not fully complied with the statute; and your committee desires to report that, since we have examined these securities, some of the companies have replaced and substituted further and additional securities which meet with our approval, and we have assurance from the officers of these companies who have not complied with our requirements that they will do so at once.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your committee feels it their duty to recommend to your honorable body the following:

1. The examination of the accounts in the State Treasury Department discloses the fact that some of the State institutions were not required to disburse their funds through the Auditor's and Treasurer's office. We feel that it would be wise and proper for the State to require that all institutions, supported wholly or in part by appropriations from this State, should be required to disburse their funds through this channel. This would give the State more insight into and supervision over these institutions, and would be of great benefit to each.

2. We recommend that all securities deposited under section 4780, Revisal of North Carolina, be submitted to the Attorney-General, who, together with the Insurance Commissioner, shall approve same before they are accepted, and that the said securities, after acceptance, be filed by the Insurance Commissioner with the State Treasurer, who shall take his receipt for the same. Our reason for making this suggestion to your honorable body is because, under the law, the Insurance Commissioner of North Carolina is only required to give a bond in the sum of $25,000, and the securities in his possession amount to over $1,000,000, and we feel that he should not be burdened with this responsibility upon him, and that the State Treasurer should be the custodian of all funds which belong to the State, either direct or in trust.

3. Your committee learns that some of the State institutions have failed to report their earnings to the State Treasurer; therefore we have no record of same. We recommend that a statute be passed requiring that this be done.

We beg herewith to enclose the financial statement made by Mr. Smith, showing receipts and disbursements in the office of Insurance Commissioner as per his report to us, which is attached to this report and made a part of the same; all of which we respectfully submit to your honorable body.
